Modules of The Intuitive Pathway class must be taken in the sequence they are listed due to the progressive nature of the class material and practice assignments.

Although some class time will involve lecture, most class work will be active. Concepts will be introduced followed by demonstration and practice. For optimum results, students are expected to review, apply, and practice the techniques introduced in class outside of class. Modules are spaced in time to allow students to develop their skills at a rate which is both practical and healthy.

The Intuitive Pathway is Not Currently Approved for NCBTMB CE Hours

If they haven't already done so, The Intuitive Pathway students are encouraged to take Intuitive Healing Foundations and Creative Self-Care prior to completion of The Intuitive Pathway modules.

Intended Audience: Seekers of intuitive and energy healing who want to develop and practice using all of their physical and extended senses to gather and interpret impressions about themselves and a wide variety of targets.
